For the soul that made them lovely Has returned into the skies. Wipe the death-drop from her forehead; Sever one dear golden tress; Fold her icv hands all meekly, Smooth the little snowy dress: Scatter flowers so pure and white-Lay the bud upon her bosom There-now softly say Good Night.

Though our tears flow fast and faster. Yet we would not call her back : We are glad her feet no longer Tread life's rough and thorny track; We are glad our heavenly father Took her while her heart was pure; We are glad he did not leave her All life's troubles to endure. We are glad-and yet the tear drop Falleth; for, alas! we know That our fireside will be lonely, We shall miss our darling so.

While the twilight shadows gather, We shall wait in vain to feel Little arms, all white and dimpled. Round our necks so softly steal : Our wet cheeks will miss the pressure Of sweet lips, so wann and red; And our bosoms, sadly, sadly Miss that darling little head, Which was wont to rest there sweetly;

And those golden eyes so bright— We shall miss their loving glances— We shall miss their soft Good Night. When the morrow's sun is shining, They will take their cherished form: They will bear to the church-yard, And consign it to the worm. Well-what matter? it is only

The clay dress our darling wore,

so has robed her as an angel—

She is need of this no more,

Fold her hands, and o'er her pillow

Scatter flowers all pure and white; Kiss that marble brow, and whisper, Once again, a last Good Night,

STOP THEIR GROG.—In 1852 there were seven hundred and fifty-nine persons committed to the Albany Penitentiary; of this number seven hundred and thirty-four admitted themselves to have been intemperate; and only twenty-five claimed to have been temperate men and women. Not more than one-third of the whole number could read and write, and but one or two had received a through education. How intimate is the relationship between intemperance, ignerance, and crime!-What a warning to young men to beware of the intoxicating cup.

AN ELECTIONEERING CARD .- The following card was pasted by the Know Nothings in the streets of Brooklyn a few days previous to the late election. It is rich :

VOTERS, STOP AND READ! The following names are taken from a list of nominations made by the Democratic party the maker and inventor, (if known,) and the name for the City of Brooklyn:

For Mayor-Martin Kalbfleisch. For Alderman-Patrick Duff For Assessors-James Kerrigan, Wm. Mullen, John Flood. For Constable - Mathew O'Rorkee, Thomas Mc-Carty. For Commissioners of Excise-P. Kelan, John Flaherty. For Inspectors of Election-Michail Flansgan, M. McNamara, B. McLaughlin, James McCaffery, Patrick Kefan. Bernard O'Neil, Michael Donnelly, Patrick

Although the above shentlemens do not pelongs to the "Tam No Noding Party,"-bolidically spekins-yet dey is much better as MYNHBER VAN SLIPBCEEN. A SINGULAR CASE .- A number of pins were recently exhibited to the Pathological Society of London, removed from various parts of the body of a young woman, who was taking down clothes from the drying lines, and putting the pins in her mouth, when some one came behind her and seized her by the arms, startling her so much that she swallowed the whole mouthful; sickness and emeciation followed; a small swelling showed itself under her left breast, which ulcerated and burst, giving passage to a pin, the head of which was gone. Sixteen others were removed from about the same spot, and others from the left knee, from over the sternum, and from the wrist-twenty-two in all. They had all lost scription, of each kind of paper that will be retheir head except two.

STATE FAIRS-RECEIPTS .- The surplus of receipts, over expenses of the State Agricultural Society from the recent State Fair in New Haven amounts to $5,090, out of which about $200, in premiums, is to be paid. The Secretary of the Ohio State Board of Agriculture says the receipts of the late State Fair amount to $14,960.

They have been prepared at the suggestion of one of our most eminent physicians, and have been used by many of his and my personal friends with signal success, and at whose earnest so
